

project respect women matter

“TRAFFICKED”

Hear Kathleen Maltzahn, Director of Project Respect and author of the above book, speak about her organisation’s work with women in the sex industry.

MONDAY, 11 MAY—7.30 pm
Alexander Library Theatrette
(Ground Floor off Francis Street)

Advancing the status of women worldwide through service and advocacy

Zonta Club of Perth Northern Suburbs Inc.
Member of Zonta International

Project Respect is a non-profit community-based organisation that aims to empower and support women in the sex industry including women trafficked to Australia. Established in 1998 Project Respect began as a direct service conducting outreach and offering support to women in the sex industry across Victoria. They spearheaded a campaign in 2003 that resulted in the Government providing a $20 million counter-trafficking package.

If you would like to attend this FREE Seminar being hosted by The Zonta Club of Perth Northern Suburbs Inc, please RSVP by email to—
Secretary@zontaperthns.org.au

Note

Kathleen will sign copies of her book which will be on sale at the seminar.

